

MANDARIN ORIENTAL

THE RESIDENCES
WEST PALM BEACH

Set along a private shore of the Intracoastal Waterway and enveloped in tranquil tropical gardens, Mandarin Oriental Residences, West Palm Beach introduces a new era of refined waterfront living.

Developed as an intimate sanctuary within a vibrant coastal setting, this limited collection of 87 residences, designed by Safdie Architects, led by Moshe Safdie, presents a refined architectural presence and a rare sense of closeness to the coast that few addresses can claim.

Life by the water unfolds as a seamless extension of home — calming, inviting, and beautifully serviced.

Thoughtfully crafted spaces open gracefully to the Intracoastal Waterway, creating an atmosphere that invites quiet renewal and effortless gathering.

From private cabanas to a refined poolside bar and resort-style pool, every detail is designed for purposeful, unhurried living.

Seamless indoor-outdoor living unfolds through architecture rooted in the landscape, where nature becomes part of the rhythm of daily life.

Designed by celebrated landscape architecture firm ENEA, layered plantings shape natural thresholds between pathways, gardens, and private terraces, while shaded walkways meander through sculpted greenery and filtered light. Quiet outdoor alcoves framed by richly textural foliage offer moments of pause and privacy, creating a setting that feels serene and immersive, yet quietly removed and deeply connected to its surroundings.

Life at Mandarin Oriental Residences, West Palm Beach, offers a way of living shaped by an ethos of intuitive, thoughtful service. Daily experiences are elevated through care, craft, and quiet precision, while details, both seen and unseen, are thoughtfully orchestrated to transform the everyday into something truly exceptional.

Rooted in Mandarin Oriental's award-winning wellness philosophy, centered on mindfulness, balance, and time-honored Asian practices, spa and wellness experiences at Mandarin Oriental Residences, West Palm Beach, are crafted to support physical, emotional, and spiritual wellbeing.
